CITY OF MUSCATINE PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December 28, 2017

NO PARKING AT MUSSER LIBRARY / HNI COMMUNITY CENTER

Start of construction begins January 2 at new location, move-in slated for spring

MUSCATINE, Iowa – Parking in the lots at the Musser Public Library and HNI Community Center, 408 East 2nd Street, will be unavailable to the general public starting January 2, 2018, according to City of Muscatine officials.

Work on remodeling the former HNI Headquarters begins on January 2, 2018 and it is anticipated that the library will move from its present location on Iowa Avenue to the new building during Spring 2018. Parking will be limited to construction workers and library staff during this time period.
