CITY OF MUSCATINE EMPLOYEES HONORED

Long time staff members honored at annual Employee Recognition Breakfast

MUSCATINE, Iowa – The City of Muscatine paused from their work schedule Friday to recognize 40 staff members for their years of service. The 2018 Employee Recognition Breakfast was hosted by the New Hope United Methodist Church Friday morning and planned by the Employee Recognition Committee.

City staff was joined by Mayor Diana Broderson and council members Tom Spread, Nadine Brackett, Kelcey Brackett, and Osmond Malcolm in celebrating the achievement of these employees. Former mayor Dick O'Brien was also on hand.

"I would like to take this time to personally thank each and every one of you for your dedication and service to the city, our community, and its residents," City Administrator Gregg Mandsager said.

Three staff members marked 40 years of service to the city and to the community including Raymond King, Nancy Lueck, and Dennis Brady. Brian Wright and Randy Howell were recognized for 35 years while Matt Chandler and Tamra Bierman marked 30 years working for the City of Muscatine.
