Independence Day in Muscatine to feature gravity fed race down 3rd Street hill

MUSCATINE, Iowa – The forecast is for some thrilling action down the 3rd Street hill this Independence Day as dozens of homemade Soapbox Derby cars driven by daredevils of all shapes and sizes compete in Downtown Muscatine.

The Soapbox Derby is one of many events throughout the community this Wednesday (July 4) as citizens across the United States celebrates the nation's independence.

Racers will begin arriving at 8 a.m. Wednesday (July 4) in the parking lot across from Muscatine City Hall which will serve as the pit area for the competition. Weigh-in and safety checks will be conducted in the pit area starting at 11 a.m. with the first of four heats picking up speed down the hill starting at 1 p.m. Four heats are scheduled with the finals taking place at 6:30 p.m. just after the Independence Day Parade makes its way through the downtown area.

There will also be plenty of fun and action between the heats as Soapbox Derby organizers plan to stage monster tricycle races for fans. Registration for the tricycle races will be held near the pit area with the races from Chestnut to Iowa.
