MUSCATINE COMPOST SITE CLOSING FOR SEASON DEC. 17

Firewood, mulch still available for residents at no charge

MUSCATINE, Iowa – The Muscatine Compost Site will be closing for the season at 6 p.m. on Sunday, December 17, 2017. In the event of severe weather or major snow fall, the compost site will close earlier.

There is firewood and wood mulch available for residents at no charge. Individuals interested in cutting firewood need to sign a waiver at the Transfer Station and Recycling Center office prior to cutting.

Hours of operation through Sunday, December 17, 2017, are 12-6 p.m. Sunday through Friday and from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturdays.
