FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 25, 2018

Teenager is arrested on charge of attempted murder

Investigation continues into incident Sunday morning in Muscatine

MUSCATINE, Iowa – The Muscatine Police Department responded to the 900 block of Colver Street in Muscatine at 8:33 a.m. Sunday (Mar. 25) to a report of shots fired. During the investigation a Muscatine County Sheriff's Department officer located a vehicle traveling north on U.S. 61 that matched the description of the vehicle that left the residence.

The vehicle was stopped at 8:55 a.m. by a Muscatine County Deputy, Iowa State Patrol and Muscatine Police Department, and was occupied by a female driver and a male passenger. Both were taken into custody and transported to Muscatine Police Department for further investigation.

Emmanuel Howard (18) was arrested and charged for Attempted Murder, Class "B" Felony, and Intimidation with a Dangerous Weapon, Class "C" Felony. At this time there is no threat to citizens for further actions as this was an isolated incident. The case remains under investigation by the Muscatine Police Department.

Anyone that has information related to the investigation of this incident is asked to contact Lt. Anthony Kies at 563-263-9922, ext 608. The individual listed above is considered innocent of any crimes until proven otherwise by a court of law.
