POLICE MAKE ARREST IN STABBING OF MUSCATINE WOMAN

Muscatine Police continue investigation into incident Sunday at 2nd and Parmalee

MUSCATINE, Iowa – Muscatine Police have charged a 25-year-old man following a stabbing incident at the intersection of 2nd and Parmalee streets Sunday (July 29) morning.

Muscatine police responded to the intersection at 7:49 a.m. Sunday where they found Karen Douglas Gardner, 58, who had been stabbed during a physical fight. Gardner was transported to UnityPoint-Trinity Muscatine by the Muscatine Fire Department Ambulance where she was treated for non-life threatening injuries.

Bradley Toney, 25, was arrested Monday (July 30) following an investigation by the Muscatine Police Department on charges of domestic assault (2nd offense) and assault. Both charges are aggravated misdemeanors.

The above listed individual is considered innocent until proven guilty by a court of law.

Anyone that has information relating to this incident is asked to call Lt. Anthony Kies at (563) 263-9922, ext. 608.
