MUSCATINE MAN ARRESTED AFTER NOON-TIME FIGHT

Investigation continues into fight that left another Muscatine man injured

MUSCATINE, Iowa – A 25-year-old Muscatine man has been arrested on two charges following a fight during the noon hour Wednesday (Sept. 19) in Muscatine.

The Muscatine Police Department responded to a reported fight in progress at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday (Sept. 19) that involved multiple subjects with baseball bats in the area of east 6th Street and Walnut Street.

During this fight, Darrion Michael Reth, 19, of Muscatine, was stabbed in the back. He was later transported to Trinity Unity Point in Muscatine by the Muscatine Fire Department Ambulance.

As a result of the investigation Muscatine Police arrested Ramon Abel Mendoza, 25, of Muscatine, and charged him with Willful Injury causing serious injury (Class C felony) and Rioting (Aggravated Misdemeanor).

The individual listed above is considered innocent of any crimes until proven otherwise by a court of law.

This incident remains under investigation by the Muscatine Police Department. Anyone that has information is asked to call Detective Anthony Arnaman at 563-263-9922. Any further
