FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
OCTOBER 29, 2018

7TH STREET REOPENED ON MONDAY FROM IOWA TO LINN

Paving of 7th Street substantially complete as Phase 4A enters home stretch

MUSCATINE, Iowa – West 7th street was reopened to traffic Monday (Oct. 29) from Iowa Avenue to the end of the 300 block including the Chestnut and Pine streets intersections. The intersections of Linn and Spruce remained closed.

The paving is substantially complete from Linn to Locust but that section of 7 th Street will remain closed until the sidewalks and driveways are completed, and the dirt work and seeding behind the curb are completed.

The sanitary and storm sewer installation for Phase 4A of the West Hill Area Sanitary and Storm Sewer Separation Project has been completed on West 7th Street from Iowa Avenue to Locust Street. There is still some sanitary sewer installation work that needs to be done in the 700 block of Locust.
