MORE SNOW MEANS MORE FUN AT SNOW PILE TREASURE HUNT

Snow Sculpture Contest, Nature Scavenger Hunt, Bonfire to be added

MUSCATINE, Iowa – The Muscatine Parks and Recreation Department would like to invite the community to the Snow Pile Treasure Hunt on Saturday, Jan. 26, 2019 from 1-3 p.m. The Snow Pile Treasure Hunt will be held at the Muscatine Municipal Golf Course, 1820 Hwy 38 N, Muscatine, IA.

The event will begin with the Snow Pile Treasure Hunt at 1 p.m. for Preschool through 5th graders. Kids will be able to find hidden golf balls and redeem them for prizes outside the Club House. At 1:30 p.m. the community is invited to participate in the new Nature Scavenger Hunt. All ages and groups are welcome. Your group will be challenged to decipher clues that will lead to each scavenger hunt item. Find them all and win a prize!

A Snow Sculpture Contest open to artists of all ages will be held at 2:00 p.m. Groups will have an allotment of snow to build a masterpiece all their own. The winners of the contest will be awarded a free Muscatine Aquatic Center pool party. Stop by the bonfire outside the Clubhouse to keep warm throughout the afternoon.

This is a free activity with no pre-registration required. Please contact the Muscatine Parks and Recreation Department at (563) 263-0241 for more information.
