BASEBALL FUNDAMENTALS PROGRAM TO BE OFFERED

Boys in the first through six grades able to learn baseball skills this winter

MUSCATINE, Iowa – Baseball Fundamentals, an instruction baseball program for boys in the first through sixth grades, will be conducted in February by the Muscatine Parks and Recreation Department.

Registration is underway for this program that will give participants the opportunity to learn the fundamentals of baseball through hitting, throwing and fielding. Trained staff will lead the participant in this instructional program on Sunday afternoons (Feb. 3, 10, 17, 24) in the West Middle School Large Gymnasium.

Three age divisions will be offered. The program for first and second graders will be held 1-2 p.m., third and fourth graders 2-3 p.m., and fifth and sixth graders 3-4 pm. Participants will need to bring a glove and a bat to each class session.

Registration is underway with a $25.00 fee for Muscatine residents and a $30.00 fee for non-residents. All participants will receive a tee-shirt. Parents may register their child over the phone at (563) 263-0241, in-person at the Parks and Recreation Department office, or online at www.muscatineiowa.gov/registration. The registration deadline is 5 p.m. on Wednesday, January 30.
