FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
JUNE 5, 2020

ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE APPLICATION DEADLINE IS JUNE 7

Second round of program to help small businesses affected by the COVID-19

MUSCATINE, Iowa – The deadline is approaching for applications to be submitted for the second round of the forgivable loan program designed to provide financial assistance to local small businesses affected by the COVID-19 outbreak.

The Economic Assistance for Muscatine Small Businesses program is being offered by the City of Muscatine and was implemented to ensure Muscatine's economy can rebound as quickly as possible from the impacts of the COVID-19 health crisis.

The application period for the second round closes at midnight on June 7, 2020.

The City has also streamlined the application procedure to facilitate outdoor seating for area restaurants. A moratorium on three sections of City Code relating to Outdoor Restaurant Seating License was granted by City Council but will expire on October 15, 2020, unless extended by Council.

"This is part of the City's ongoing effort to support the small businesses of Muscatine," Greg Jenkins, Interim City Administrator, said. "We recognize that we have to step up, and not in a minor way, to make sure that we can get past this health crisis and promote the economic recovery of our city.”

The loan program, developed in cooperation with the Community Foundation of Greater Muscatine and the Greater Muscatine Chamber of Commerce and Industry, will be administered by the City’s Department of Community Development. City Council approved the use of up to $400,000 from the Small Business Forgivable Loan program at its April 16 meeting.

Up to $2,500 will be available to each approved business for legitimate business expenses such as rent, mortgage, utilities, inventory, or personnel.

The moratorium on sections of City Code in regards to outdoor restaurant seating license streamlines the process so that once the site plan has been reviewed and approved by the Community Development Department, approval can be granted by the current City Administrator or his/her designee. In addition, it suspends the requirement to notify adjacent businesses and boundaries of the standard program.

Modifications to the process of approving outdoor seating easement agreement applications this year will also include applicable social distancing and prevention requirements of the Iowa Department of Public Health and the Center for Disease Control.

Applications for outdoor seating easement can be made to Andrew Fangman, Assistant Community Development Director, by email at afangman@muscatineiowa.gov.
