Muscatine City Council to discuss how and when to have Trick or Treating in Muscatine

MUSCATINE, Iowa – The Muscatine City Council will conduct a discussion on how Trick or Treating will look this year in Muscatine, and what day and time the annual event will be held.

The Muscatine City Council will meet in a virtual session at 7 p.m. Thursday, September 10. Details on attending the virtual meeting are listed below.

Many cities across the nation are grappling with how Halloween will look like this year due to the COVID-19 pandemic, and how to incorporate safety guidelines into the event most children look forward to each year.

The Council will also vote on an offer from Stanley Center for Peace and Security to buy the former Musser Public Library building on Iowa Avenue, and then hear more good news from the Parks and Recreation Department on Eagle Scout Projects.
