MUSCATINE MAN APPREHENDED AFTER TWO WEEK SEARCH

Three face charges following January 10 incident on Nebraska Street

MUSCATINE, Iowa – A Muscatine man wanted on charges related to a shots fired incident in January has been arrested.

Officers of the Muscatine Police Department responded to 1713 Earl Avenue, Apartment C, Monday (Feb. 8, 2021) in an attempt to locate Kobe Schubert, 20. Police located Schubert at that residence and was served an arrest warrant for Going Armed with Intent and Reckless Use of a Firearm.

Muscatine Police Department officers responded to the 1200 block of Nebraska Street on January 10, 2021, to investigate a report of gun shots. When officers arrived they found two unoccupied vehicles that had been struck by multiple rounds of gun fire.

No other property was found to be damaged and there were no injuries.

Following an extensive investigation, Muscatine Police investigators charged three individuals in connection with the incident. Ronald Lee Johnson, 50, 704 Division Street, Muscatine, and
