Parks and Recreation Program Supervisor Kelsie Stafford will lead the presentation of the protocols that will be implemented at the start of the summer swim season for both patrons and staff utilizing the facility. Parks and Recreation staff have been busy preparing the Aquatic Center for the season and will begin to fill the pool next week. The pool is tentatively scheduled to open Memorial Day weekend.

Two new police officers will be sworn in to open the meeting Thursday. Demitri Wheeler and Dakota Mullen will be the first officers two taking the oath in Council Chamber since the pandemic was proclaimed a year ago.

Mayor Broderson will also read proclamations establishing May 16-23 as National Public Works Week to pay tribute to public works professionals, engineers, managers, and employees, May 12 as Peace Officer’s Memorial Day to honor those law enforcement officers who made the ultimate sacrifice in service to their community as part of National Police Week (May 9-15), and proclaim May 17-23 as Emergency Medical Services Week.
