MUSCATINE AQUATIC CENTER TO OPEN THIS WEEKEND

Plenty of fun expected this summer in the beautiful pool at Weed Park

MUSCATINE, Iowa – After a year and a half of sitting idle, the Muscatine Aquatic Center in Weed Park will swing open the gates and welcome back patrons on Saturday (May 29) when the facility opens for the 2021 season, weather permitting.

“We have been working hard in recent weeks to have the center ready for warm weather fun,” Kelsie Stafford, Program Supervisor for the Parks and Recreation Department, said. “We have a great staff ready to provide a safe and memorable experience for area residents.”

The City of Muscatine joins with the staff of the Muscatine Parks and Recreation Department in looking forward to welcoming the public back to the Muscatine Aquatic Center for the first time since the 2019 season. Parks and Recreation staff has spent the last several days filling the pool with water, testing the chemistry of the water, and training staff in preparation for the opening over Memorial Day Weekend.

Saturday (May 29) will be the first day of the 2021 season for the Aquatic Center, weather permitting. The Aquatic Center will be open daily until mid- to late-August from 12-3:45 p.m. and 4:15-8:00 p.m. Increased sanitizing of the facility will take place during the open swim intermission.
