‘SNOW’ MUCH TO LOVE DURING FAMILY FRIENDLY EVENT

Treasure hunt, hot cocoa and much more planned at Muni Golf Course

MUSCATINE, Iowa – The community is invited out to the Muscatine Municipal Golf Course (1820 Hwy 38 N, Muscatine, Iowa) from 1-3 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 11, and participate in the annual Snow Pile Treasure Hunt. The event is sponsored by the Muscatine Parks and Recreation Department.

There is “snow” much to love during this family-friendly event that begins with the Snow Pile Treasure Hunt at 1:00 p.m. for children in preschool through the fifth grade. Children will be able to find hidden golf balls and redeem them for prizes at the table located just outside the Clubhouse.

Valentine’s Day-themed crafts and games will be held inside the Clubhouse immediately following the Snow Pile Treasure Hunt. A delicious hot cocoa bar will be located inside the Clubhouse throughout the event to warm up those in attendance.

This is a free activity with no pre-registration required. Please contact the Muscatine Parks and Recreation Department at (563) 263-0241 for more information.
