MUSCATINE, Iowa – A Muscatine man has been arrested Thursday (Jan. 11) on a charge of domestic assault and false imprisonment following an incident that occurred on Sunday.

A preliminary investigation determined the individual who had been on the ground was an adult female. The disturbance had been the result of a domestic violence situation that the female had been trying to escape from. An attempt was made to locate the male, who was identified as Justin Francis Miller (12/2/1980), but he could not be located.

The case was picked up by investigators Thursday (Jan. 11) with the Muscatine Police Department. A search warrant was obtained for Miller's residence, 1714 Miles Avenue, in an effort to further the investigation. Investigators and officers served the search warrant shortly after 11 a.m. Thursday.

Miller was located within the residence and taken into custody without incident. Miller was charged with domestic assault and false imprisonment, and transferred to the Muscatine County jail.

The case remains under investigation and anyone with information regarding the incident is asked to call Detective Adam Raisbeck at (563) 263-9922 extension 665.

Miller is considered to be innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
