FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
APRIL 29, 2024

SEVERAL CITY BOARDS WILL HAVE VACANCIES TO FILL

Individuals sought to serve on several boards and commissions starting on July 1

MUSCATINE, Iowa – The City of Muscatine is reaching out to community members and looking for citizens who would be interested in helping guide Muscatine's future by volunteering to serve on a citizen board. Six of the boards and commissions authorized by the City of Muscatine are looking for members to fill their ranks in the new fiscal year.

Interested individuals can choose between the Airport Advisory Commission, Board of Water, Electric, and Communications, the Civil Service Commission, the Historic Preservation Commission, the Public Art Advisory Commission, and the Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission.

Each board will have at least one opening, with the Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission having two openings beginning on July 1.

CITY OF MUSCATINE PRESS RELEASE

Anyone interested in participating on one of these boards is asked to fill out an application and submit the form by Friday, May 10. Applications can be either emailed to the administrative secretary or mailed to Boards & Commissions, c/o Administrative Secretary, Muscatine City Hall, 215 Sycamore, Muscatine, IA 52761.

Many areas to help the community

The City of Muscatine has 12 different boards and commissions that support and advise different departments and different aspects of life within Muscatine, and applications are currently being accepted for the Historic Preservation Commission and other boards and commissions. See BOARDS for list of the boards and commissions authorized by the City of Muscatine and the application in a PDF format.

Muscatine is a great place to live and work, and nothing demonstrates that fact more than how residents come together to serve for the betterment of the community as a whole. Whether that service comes by serving on the committee, volunteering for a project, offering to help on an organizational level, or in just helping out a neighbor, Muscatine residents are working together to make a great community even better.

The City of Muscatine is very thankful and grateful for the many residents who have volunteered their time and service to be a member on one of the many boards and commissions that assist in developing and monitoring City programs, policies and services.

How can I apply to volunteer my time?

CITY OF MUSCATINE PRESS RELEASE

Those interested in becoming a member of a board or commission can complete an application and either email the form to the administrative secretary or mail the form to Boards & Commissions, c/o Administrative Secretary, Muscatine City Hall, 215 Sycamore, Muscatine, IA 52761. The City keeps applications on file in case vacancies occur. If you are interested and available in volunteering your time, please submit your application for a future term of office.

All applications are reviewed by the Nominating Committee to ensure applicants meet the qualifications to serve on a specific board or commission, and to ensure there are no potential conflicts of interests. Those that meet the requirements are submitted to the full Council for approval. The nominating committee includes the Mayor of Muscatine, two Council representatives, and the City Administrator or a representative from city staff.

The City of Muscatine welcomes all residents to submit their names and resumes for a specific board or commission or a general submission for any board or commission. Most boards or commissions require some knowledge of the subject matter and the responsibilities for the specific board or commission.
