PEARL CITY VINTAGE MARKET SET OCTOBER 12

Vendors, music, food, and fun for all ages in Riverside Park

MUSCATINE, Iowa – The Muscatine riverfront will be the place to be on Saturday, October 12, as the Greater Muscatine Chamber of Commerce & Industry presents the 4th Annual Pearl City Vintage Market. The market will run from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. with vendors featuring a variety of handmade, vintage, repurposed, and curated goods.

The event is free and has something for everyone to enjoy including live music from the Pickled Beats and Bobby Ray Bunch, a fall-inspired bar, kids craft tent, food trucks, photo-op by the world's largest watermelon sculpture, and much more.

Please check www.muscatine.com/events and the Greater Muscatine Chamber of Commerce & Industry Facebook page for updates and a list of vendors.

DON'T FORGET THE PARKS AND RECREATION FALL FESTIVAL

Along with the Vintage Market, the Muscatine Parks and Recreation Department is sponsoring their 14th Fall Festival at Pearl City Station with lots of activities for children inside the building. Fantastic fall-inspired crafts and games will entertain ghosts and ghouls, and children are encouraged to wear their Halloween costumes.

Although activities will be geared toward children in Kindergarten through the Fourth Grade, families and children of all ages are encouraged to attend this event and join in the fun. There is no cost to participate in the Fall Festival. Contact the Muscatine Parks and Recreation Department at (563) 263-0241 for more information.
