LIBRARY BRINGS BACK WINTER READING PROGRAM

All ages welcome for bingo themed program starting December 16 at Musser Library

MUSCATINE, Iowa – If you are looking for an excuse this season to snuggle up and read, Musser Public Library has just the thing for you! This month, we are excited to announce that we are bringing back our Winter Reading Program, for all ages. Starting Monday, Dec. 16 and through the end of February, you will have a chance to read something new, try something different, and of course, get a prize!

What is “Bookish Bingo?” There are plenty of book prompts in the bingo squares, but there are other “bookish” prompts as well, such as “read at a coffee shop,” “do the children’s department scavenger hunt,” or “read while wearing mittens.” We have two different bingo cards, one geared toward our younger patrons and the other geared toward teens and adults.

How do I participate? Pick up a "Bookish Bingo" card at the Children's Desk or the Service Desk. When you have completed five prompts in a row – making a bingo – come to the children's desk to collect your prize. For teens and adults there is a limit of one prize per bingo card. It works differently for kids. Once they have collected one prize for a bingo, they have the option of going for a "blackout" by completing the entire card. If they get a blackout, they can collect an additional prize.

Happy Winter Reading!
