MUSCATINE, Iowa – The Muscatine City Council will conduct two public hearings and swear in a new firefighter during its February 6 meeting. Budget discussions are also underway for City of Muscatine staff and the Muscatine City Council with another session scheduled shortly after the regular Council meeting.

The public is welcomed, and encouraged, to attend when the Council meets at 6 p.m. Thursday in the City Council Chambers on the second flood of Muscatine City Hall. The meeting is open to all individuals regardless of language spoken or disability. Any person requiring a reasonable accommodation to participate should contact the City Clerk's office at 563-264-1550.

Both public hearings are in regards to zoning changes to the area of Muscatine Community College. The second public hearing, and subsequent first reading of the amended ordinance, regards the creating of a CF-Community Facility District.
