MUSCATINE, Iowa – Following the success of its inaugural event, the Muscatine Women's Leadership Network (MWLN) is excited to announce its second annual all-day Summit, set for Thursday, June 5, at Bridgestone Bandag.

"We were blown away by the turnout and energy at last year's Summit, and we're thrilled to partner again with Bridgestone Bandag to host this growing movement of incredible women," Lindsay Trumbull, Director of Membership at the Greater Muscatine Chamber of Commerce & Industry (GMCCI), said. "Empowerment, connection, and inspiration are at the heart of our mission. Fellowship and support are vital to the health of our workforce, and we're proud to introduce another outstanding lineup of speakers, panelists, vendors, and community partners to motivate and uplift this year's attendees."

This year's featured speakers include Jean Reynolds (retired, HNI Corporation), Jennifer Fridley (Muscatine Community Schools), and Brenda Meeker (Elevate Consulting).
