SEEK APPLICANTS FOR PLANNING AND ZONING

MUSCATINE, Iowa – The City of Muscatine is currently accepting applications to fill a vacancy on the Planning and Zoning Commission. This volunteer commission plays a key role in shaping the city's future growth and development.

Ideal candidates should have relevant knowledge or experience in areas such as city planning, zoning, land use, or community development. Members are responsible for reviewing and making recommendations on land use policies, zoning matters, updates to the Comprehensive Plan, and real estate vacation requests.

Application Process

Residents interested in serving can download and complete the Board and Commission Application (Click here to download the Application PDF). Completed applications may be submitted via email to the City Clerk or mailed to:

Get Involved in Your Community

The Planning and Zoning Commission is just one of 12 boards and commissions that help guide city policies and initiatives. Additional opportunities are available on the Historic Preservation Commission and other advisory boards. To view a full list of openings and access the application, visit the [Boards & Commissions page](insert link).

Muscatine thrives when residents step forward to serve. Whether it's through formal service, community volunteering, or helping neighbors, our city grows stronger through civic engagement.

Selection Process

All applications are reviewed by the Nominating Committee, which includes the Mayor, two City Council members, and the City Administrator or a designee. Candidates are evaluated based on qualifications and potential conflicts of interest, and recommended appointments are submitted to the City Council for final approval.

The City welcomes applicants with both subject matter knowledge and a passion for public service. Even if no immediate vacancies are available, applications are kept on file for future consideration.
