MUSCATINE POLICE ANNOUNCE ARREST IN STABBING

19-year-old charged in Walnut Street stabbing; victim expected to make full recovery

MUSCATINE, Iowa — A suspect has been arrested following a stabbing reported Monday evening in the 200 block of Walnut Street, according to the Muscatine Police Department.

Kaleb Allen Sosa, 19, was arrested and charged with willful injury, a Class D felony.

Officers responded at approximately 7:35 p.m. Monday after receiving a 911 call reporting a stabbing in the area. The initial investigation determined that a verbal confrontation between two adult males escalated, resulting in one individual being stabbed.

The victim, Jason Cannon, 37, is expected to make a full recovery.

Sosa is presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
