POLICE DEPARTMENT – A NATIONALLY ACCREDITED LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY

On July 7, 2020 at approx. 8:30 AM Officer Mark Schollmeyer and Corporal Matt Fowler were on patrol when they smelled smoke and observed smoke coming from the 500 Block of Liberty St. They were in the same patrol vehicle and went to the area of the smoke.

The officers observed a house fire at 512 Liberty St. The officers kicked in the front door of the house and yelled with no response. They could not see into the house because of the black smoke. They then went to the back of the house where Corporal Fowler kicked in the back door.

Corporal Fowler yelled into the residence. It was then that they heard someone. They found a woman lying on the floor just inside the back door. Corporal Fowler and Officer Schollmeyer picked up the woman and carried her out of the house to safety.

Due to the quick actions of the officers at the house, they saved the woman's life.
